

Penn State Abington is proud to offer a new CLE/CPE program for in-house delivery:

Bodily Harm:

Understanding the Science of Body Language and Image (Non-verbal Communication)

CLE Credit: 3.0 Substantive

CPE Credit: 3.0 Other

CEU Credit: 0.3

Penn State Abington is an approved provider of continuing professional education credits by the:

- Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board
- Pennsylvania State Board of Accountancy
- New Jersey State Board of Accountancy

Up to 93% of all communication is non-verbal. Gaining insight into what your presence communicates to others is a crucial step in managing your professional image. This unique program will show you how to create and maintain powerful first impressions and accurately interpret the body language of others. You can also pick up tips on how to cultivate a polished image that commands respect and enables you to thrive professionally in this competitive business climate.

Instructors:

Sara Canuso, CSL

Sara Canuso, President of A Suitable Solution, is a body language and image expert. Sara is the creator of Campus to Corporate, a program offered to colleges and universities to help students make the transition from academia into the workplace. She is a certified seminar leader and well known and regarded for her informative and popular column in the Philadelphia Maven and her Winning Look articles in the Legal Intelligencer and the Burlington County Straight Word.

Theresa M. Italiano, Esq.

Theresa Italiano, an attorney and educator, is an expert in communications, leadership, and group dynamics. Theresa's experience includes positions as a member of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Disciplinary Board Hearing Committee, in addition to private practice with the Philadelphia law firm of Naulty, Scaricamazza and McDevitt. She received her Juris Doctor from Temple University School of Law, and earned her B.S. and M.S. in Education from the University of Pennsylvania.

For more information, contact Theresa Bloom at tmb17@psu.edu or 215-881-7402